4. Let us pray for all who suffer – the poor, the lonely, the bereaved, those suffering illness of body or mind, and those affected by war and injustice.

Let us pray for Peace in the world and an end to the horrors of war. We pray that the Holy Spirit will enter the hearts of leaders and decision makers so reconciliation may be found.

Lord, in your mercy....Hear our prayer.

5. Let us pray for ourselves – that we will recognise the Lord, who waits for us in the circumstances and relationships of our lives –as he waited for the woman at the well. May we accept the gift he offers us - the living nourishing water of his love.

6. Let us pray for those who have died and those who mourn. May we be comforted by the promise of Eternal life.
