

Bidding Prayers 34rd Sunday in Ordinary time 22nd /23rd November 2025

Reader: As leaders continue to work together at the U.N. Climate Change Conference, let us pray that they awaken to the Holy Spirit, so that in unity with our loving Creator, they will make wise and courageous decisions to heal and protect our common home.

Lord, hear us. R. Lord graciously hear us.

Reader: For all those who suffer as a result of war, let us pray that disorder, conflict and violence are replaced with harmony, reconciliation and peace.

Lord, hear us. R. Lord graciously hear us

Reader: For Pope Leo, Bishop Marcus, Fr. Kieron and all the clergy, let us pray that they are supported in ministering to the spiritual needs of our communities, especially the vulnerable, the marginalised and the forgotten and to shine the light of hope in their lives.

Lord, hear us. R. Lord graciously hear us.

Reader: For those who are feeling the pain of bereavement, let us pray that they open their hearts to the tenderness of God's love, so they are comforted in their grief and come to a deeper understanding of the promise of eternal life.

Lord, hear us. R. Lord graciously hear us

Reader: As we move closer to the end of this Liturgical year, we can reflect upon the difficulties we may have faced in our lives. Let us pray for the grace to be grateful for the loving presence of God, which calms, soothes, and illuminates all that is peaceful and good.

Lord, hear us. R. Lord graciously hear us

Reader: Let us ask Mary, Queen of Peace to pray with us as we say, Hail Mary...
